CHURCHILL CALLS UPON OLD FRIENDS

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH
WASHINGTON (AP)—It was a visit that tugged at the heart-strings—timeworn Sir Winston Churchill paying a call on two gravely ill old friends.

Accompanied by President Eisenhower, his host, Britain's former prime minister went to Walter Reed Army Hospital Tuesday afternoon to see cancer-stricken John Foster Dulles and Gen. George C. Marshall, who has suffered two strokes.

Marshall, now retired, was U.S. Army chief of staff in World War II and worked closely with Churchill. Dulles, whose illness forced his resignation as secretary of state last month, also had participated in many a conference with the grand old man from England.

Churchill now is 84 and—as Eisenhower put it at his news conference Tuesday—is showing the wear and tear of advancing age. So it was something of a physical effort for him to go to the hospital from the White House.

He and the President first spent about two minutes with Marshall, who recognized them but could say little. Mrs. Marshall told the visitors, however, that her husband was delighted they had come.

Newsman were not permitted to accompany Churchill and Eisenhower. White House press secretary James C. Hagerty gave reporters an account of the sessions.

It was Hagerty who supplied the picture of deep emotion—a picture of the President escorting one somewhat enfeebled old friend on the visit with two others who are critically sick.

Dulles, wearing a blue and white robe over pajamas, was brought into the room in a wheelchair. It was the first public disclosure that he no longer is doing much walking when out of bed. A State Department spokesman said Dulles still can walk, but finds the wheelchair more convenient.

Khrush Sounds Warning Over German Peace Treaty

FRANKFURT, Germany (AP)—Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev says there won't be any trouble in Berlin, whatever length and course forthcoming international talks may take.

He made the remarks to a group of visiting West German Socialist editors in Moscow. The interview was carried in several German and Austrian newspapers today.

Khrushchev reiterated, however, that if no agreement on a German peace treaty were reached, the Soviet Union would go ahead and sign a separate one with East Germany.

Then, said Khrushchev, the Allied occupation of West Berlin would come to an end, and control over Western access routes to Berlin must be exercised by East Germany.

It was Khrushchev's warning that the Soviets would cede control rights over Allied communications with Berlin that brought on the German crisis and led to the calling of an East-West (Turn to Page Twenty-Two)

Slays Two Women Who Laughed at Him

BEAUMONT, Tex. (AP)—Two women were killed by rifle fire at an apartment house here Tuesday and police quickly arrested the man who says he fired the fatal shots.

The man, father of a local policeman, was quoted by police as saying he killed the two women because one had him arrested and both laughed at him when he was jailed.

Killed were Alpha Bell Hill, 48, a nurse's aide here; and Elsie Hufstutler, 48.

Thomas Jefferson Jones, 57, was ordered held without bond on murder charges after a daughter called police and told them "daddy says he has killed two women."

Jones was arrested at the home of the daughter, Mrs. J. O. Rexness, about an hour after the shooting in an apartment house here where Mrs. Hill lived.

HUGE LIBEL JUDGMENT IS SET ASIDE

WASHINGTON (AP)—U. S. Dist. Judge George L. Hart, Jr. today set aside, as excessive, a $145,000 libel judgment won by Mrs. Pearl A. Wanamaker as a result of a broadcast by Fulton Lewis Jr.

Judge Hart said that even by construing the evidence most favorably to Mrs. Wanamaker, it was his opinion that the verdict was so excessive "a to shock the conscience and lead to the conclusion that the jury was influenced by passion or prejudice."

Mrs. Wanamaker is a former superintendent of public instruction in Washington state and long has been prominent nationally in educational circles.

The Lewis broadcast on which the suit was based occurred Jan. 6, 1958. Lewis said then that Mrs. Wanamaker had a brother who had been in the State Department and who fled behind the Iron Curtain, renouncing his American citizenship for Communism.

In his next broadcast Jan. 8, Lewis admitted he had made a "horrible mistake" and explained he had meant to use the name of another Washington state educator.

As a result of the judge's ruling today, the case must be retried unless opposing lawyers should reach a compromise settlement of the suit.

Peaceful Use of Outer Space Is Sought by U.N.

By WILLIAM N. OATIS
UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The United States told a Soviet boycotted U.N. committee today that the world can expect great things from earth satellites in the fairly near future if every nation cooperates in exploring space.

"In no field of endeavor is co-operation among nations more appropriate or more necessary," U.S. Delegate Henry Cabot Lodge said in the organization meeting of the U.N. Committee on Peaceful Uses of Outer Space.

"The job is far too big for any one nation, no matter how big or how advanced in technology that nation may be. Every nation has a part to play and all peoples stand to gain from the results."

Lodge did not mention the boycott of the 18-member committee by the Soviet Union.

Sen. Johnson Speaker At Democratic Dinner

HARRISBURG (AP)—Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas told Pennsylvania Democrats Tuesday night the nation must end politically divided government in order to cope with challenges at home and abroad.

"Thesetimes clearly require that our nation must be the strongest force in shaping tomorrow's world," Johnson declared. "Prolonged divisions within our government can only blunt that force and sap that vital strength."

Johnson spoke at a $100-a-plate dinner sponsored by the Pennsylvania Democratic Committee and attended by top party leaders, including Gov. Lawrence.

Would Make Parents Liable for Children

HARRISBURG (AP)—Parents would be liable for injury or damage caused by their children under a bill approved by the House Tuesday and sent to the Senate.

The vote on the much-amended proposal was 135-53.

It would make the parents of any child 8 to 16 years of age liable for injury to any persons or loss or damage to property caused by the child's willful and malicious conduct. Such liability would range from $300 for a single act to $1,000 for a series of acts.

The bill was changed five times before it finally won enough support to pass. On March 17, a final vote was postponed when opposition to the bill mushroomed in the floor debate and its defeat appeared certain.

Opponents and sponsors of the measure got together then to iron out their differences.

Levinsons' Bringing to New Store Years of Merchandising Experience

What may be aptly termed a "family tradition" comes into being as Levinson Brothers launch a tremendous sales event designed to clear the decks of the former Metzger-Wright department store to make way for progressive plans to institute a five-year modernization program.

The late Harry Levinson, some 53 years ago, opened a store in Clymer which soon became familiar to countless patrons in that area. Known simply as "Levinson's" the one floor store featured general merchandise of wide appeal, modest prices and "dependable merchandise" (this slogan is still used in connection with the institution). "Levinson's" at Clymer has enjoyed steady and satisfied patronage down through the years. Today the store does a thriving business under the expert management of David Luxenberg of Indiana, a brother-in-law to the three Levinson brothers whose abilities combine to offer the Warren area a fine department store. Mr. Luxenberg will be a partner in the new set-up but plans to continue the operation of the Clymer emporium.

Nahum Levinson is named general manager of Levinson Brothers department store, bringing to its four floors a wealth of experience in the field. For twelve years, with the exception of three devoted to managing Mahoning Stores, he has headed the well-known Molly Ann store in Indiana. Molly Ann, with its own designing room, is a high fashion shop specializing in famous name creations for the well-dressed women. With his wife and daughter, Laura Anne, Nahum will make his home in Warren.

Soviet Radioactive Fallout Studied By Joint Committee

Would Rename Area Road for Missionary

HARRISBURG (AP)—A proposal that State Route 666 in Warren and Forest counties be renamed the David Zelsberger Highway in memory of the 18th century Moravian missionary was introduced in the House Tuesday.

Reps. James K. Davis (R-Forest) and Allen M. Gibson (R-Warren) sponsored a resolution suggesting the change. They pointed out that the highway's lower terminal, East Hickory, is the site of the mission established in 1769 by Zelsberger.

The proposal was sent to the Rules Committee for further study.

Strauss Likely to Get Some Support At Hearing Today

By GEOFFREY GOULD
WASHINGTON (AP)—Lewis L. Strauss has sat in a Senate hearing room and heard himself called vindictive, boastful, unethical, the next thing to a liar.

Today, for a change, he appeared likely to get some strong support for his nomination as secretary of commerce from the man called the father of the H-bomb, Dr. Edward Teller.

Teller was brought in as a witness by the Senate Commerce Committee, which has heard two days of caustic criticism of Strauss from Sen. Clinton P. Anderson (D-NM).

Teller, of the University of California's Radiation Laboratory, generally supported Strauss down the line in his stormy years as chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission.

No Cabinet appointment of President Eisenhower has evoked such a volcano of charges and recriminations against the nominee.

Anderson told the committee that Strauss had taken god-like credit for developing the hydrogen bomb although the real decisions and work on the weapon were done by others.

RADIOACTIVE TRUCKING

HARRISBURG (AP)—A new regulation adopted by the Public Utility Commission requires truckers to get specific authority to transport radioactive material in Pennsylvania.

The PUC said Tuesday the action was taken to provide "every possible safeguard in the intrastate transportation of these modern lethal materials."

Board at Little Rock Would Fire 44 Instructors

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—The Little Rock School Board's three unyielding segregationists Tuesday disregarded a walkout by three moderate members and voted to fire 44 teachers in the city's integration-troubled school system.

Twenty-six of those whose contracts would not be renewed are employed at the closed Central High School where a handful of Negroes attended under protection of federal troops in 1957-58.

The moderates—Ted Lamb, Russell Matson and Everett Tucker, Jr.—left a board meeting called to consider teacher contracts after announcing they would vote to re-hire all or none of the system's 800 teachers. They said they would consider any action by the remaining members as illegal for lack of a quorum.

Lamb later said Tuesday's decisions would be challenged in court. Lamb said the trio had adopted the "all or none" attitude (Turn to Page Twenty-Two)

Action to Control Air Pollution Is Advocated

HARRISBURG (AP)—Gov. Lawrence says something must be done to control air pollution—a public nuisance he says is costing Pennsylvanians 600 million dollars a year.

The governor, at his news conference Tuesday, said the estimate was based on figures from the State Health Department studies.

"Corrosion of metals and paints, depreciation and deterioration of personal property, soiled buildings and laundry and dry cleaning and agricultural damage are examples of the costly effects of air pollution," Lawrence said.

Mother and Boy Friend Admit Slaying Children

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—A mother and her unemployed boy friend calmly told officers Tuesday how they planned and carried out the murder of her two young sons.

The couple, who had been in San Diego only two weeks, were quoted by sheriff's deputies as saying they killed the boys last Saturday "because they were bad" and left their bodies in the mountains east of here.

Kenneth Archie Merriam, 36, an unemployed painter, told officers and reporters he strangled the boys at the suggestion of their mother, Wanda Brogdon, 33.

"She talked me into it," Merriam said. "It's a shame." He had been asked to explain why he strangled David Wayne Brogdon, 3, and Virgil Brogdon Jr., 5.

Dist. Atty. Don Keller said Merriam and Mrs. Brogdon would be arraigned on two counts of murder.

Leaders of Oil Industry Start Pipeline Message

Leaders of the oil industry, government officials, and newsmen gathered Tuesday at Titusville, Corsicana, Texas, and New York City for ceremonies that started a microfilm message on a journey through the nation's crude pipelines from Corsicana to Titusville.

Warren was represented in Titusville yesterday by United Refining Company president Harry A. Logan, Jr., who is chairman of the Oil Industry Division of Oil Centennial, Inc.; United; and Leroy Schneek, United's Keystone news reporter.

The oil industry was started in Titusville 100 years ago and the first oil well in Texas was discovered in Corsicana in 1895. Yesterday's message, part of the industry's Centennial celebration, carries the greetings of governors of 33 oil and gas producing states to Titusville and Governor David L. Lawrence. The message is sealed in a capsule and attached to a pipeline "scraper" used in cleaning the lines. It will arrive here in about one month.

A complete story about yesterday's event and a map showing the journey of the pipeline "pig" will appear in tomorrow's Times-Mirror.

Famous Eiffel Tower Having 70th Birthday Anniversary

PARIS (AP)—Seventy years ago today a Spanish nobleman rode a rickety elevator to the top of the Eiffel Tower to become its first public visitor.

Since then almost 35 million persons have visited the 984-foot steel skeleton, France's most popular tourist attraction.

The name of the Spanish pioneer is lost to history, but more distinguished guests include Queen Victoria, Presidents Wilson and Eisenhower and Sir Winston Churchill.

To handle the huge flow of tourists—as many as 17,000 a summer Sunday—the original elevator was replaced in 1900 by a series of lifts, with two double-deckers serving the lower two of the tower's three observation decks.

A few hardy persons still climb the 1,900 steps to the top. Amateur mountaineers from time to time have tried to make it up the outside, girder by girder. The government banned such stunts after an Austrian tourist who couldn't pay the admission price climbed 700 feet.

The 984-foot tower was built to commemorate the 100th anniversary of the French Revolution of 1789. Its designer was bridge builder Gustave Eiffel.

Construction started in 1887. It took 300 workmen two years and 2 1/2 million rivets to put together the 18,036 iron girders. The tower weighs 7,000 tons and cost 1 1/2 million dollars.

NEGOTIATORS HOPING FOR PEACE PACT

BULLETIN
NEW YORK (AP)—The chief negotiator for the steel industry said today the industry is considering a mutual assistance plan to share profits if one or more companies are shut down by a strike, instead of the entire industry being struck.

R. Conrad Cooper, chief negotiator for the U. S. Steel Corp. and the steel industry, told newsmen steel producers are considering a mutual aid strike plan similar to one adopted last fall by major airlines when faced with a rash of separate strikes.

Steel labor contract negotiations centered today on a discussion of industry claims by the U. S. Steel Corp. that rising wage levels are pricing American steel out of the market in competition with foreign steel.

Seven other steel companies began formal contract talks with the United Steelworkers Union. One more bargaining session starts Thursday to make an even dozen sets of negotiations—all in the Roosevelt Hotel.

Present contracts expire June 30 when an industrywide strike could occur, although both union and management negotiators pledged an all-out drive to reach a peace pact before then.

In a key bargaining session between the union and U. S. Steel, the subject was foreign competition.

"This has been minimized by the union, but the industry said: 'Aided by favorable investment conditions abroad, modernized and expanded steel plants, and a wide advantage in wage costs, foreign steel products have recently demonstrated (Turn to Page Twenty-Two)

Capacity House For Boy Choir's Spring Concert

A near-capacity audience gathered in Beatty Junior High School auditorium last evening to greet Warren Boy Choir members and enjoy their 12th annual spring concert of the local singing group. Byron L. Swanson directed, with Richard A. Sidey at the piano.

The entire program was dedicated to the memory of Miss Adelaide Swanson, who had served as choir accompanist for 12 years prior to her death several weeks ago.

The program opened with the boys appearing in their traditional crimson cassocks and yellow sashes and presenting sacred numbers highlighted by Mendelssohn's "Hear My Prayer."

Later the boys changed to smart navy blue ensembles, with knee shorts and blazers, and sang a group of show tunes from familiar Broadway productions. Solos duets and trios were intermixed with the ensemble numbers.

Following intermission, the choir appeared in colorful short jackets and sang folk songs from many lands to climax a very enjoyable evening. The Second Boy Choir composed of younger and newer boys also presented two numbers.

As always, the performance showed the result of long and arduous rehearsal by the Boy Choir members and their director Byron L. Swanson, and the audience warmly applauded each selection. Many of the songs had been learned especially for this local audience and closing of the current musical season for the group.

Some 750 delegates also re-elected all officers and decided to hold next year's meeting in Pittsburgh. State Deputy John F. Cooney, of Port Carbon, was re-elected as were Samuel L. Polk Patient Dies Of Asphyxiation While Restrained

POLK—A Polk State School patient, who had been a resident of the school for the past eight years, died accidentally on Sunday of asphyxiation when a restraining jacket tightened around her neck.

Dr. James H. McClelland, Jr., superintendent of the school, said the girl, Patricia Clare Ganster, 16, was found at 2:40 p. m. on the sun porch of Division C, Meadowside.

The youngster was severely retarded and had a convulsive disorder which necessitated that she be placed in a restraining jacket at nearly all times so that she would not fall and hurt herself.

The jacket which held her was sleeveless and permitted her free use of her arms and legs. It was tied to a bench and apparently the cord was too loose. Apparently she was able to partially extricate herself from the jacket, or she had a convulsion and her arms were freed in that manner. She then slipped from the bench and the jacket rolled itself around her neck. When found by the attendant she was lying face down on the floor with her weight suspended entirely by the jacket.

Dr. Maurice A. Dinberg, Venango County coroner, who investigated, issued a certificate

Dr. McClelland said attendants are on duty at the Meadowside Division. The accident occurred when the morning and afternoon shifts were changing at 2:30 p. m. It is customary for the relief attendants to report to the one leaving duty in the corridor. The sunporch is located off the large day room at the cottage and is visible from that room. The only witnesses to the accident were a number of other patients, also severely retarded and confined to restraining jackets.

Parents of the girl, Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Ganser, Glenshaw, were notified and the child was taken home for burial.

Care of Forests Increases Income For Tree Farmers

HARRISBURG (Special)—Take care of your woodlot and your woodlot will help take care of you. That's the advice of N. C. Tuttle, chairman of the Pennsylvania Tree Farm Committee.

Following basic fundamentals of woodlot care will bring the timberline owner the greatest financial return over the long pull and may provide substantial supplemental income at a time of strong need, Mr. Tuttle points out.

Some basic forestry practices listed by the Tree Farm leader for Pennsylvania wood-land owners include:

1. Protect woods from fire, insects, disease and destructive grazing.
2. Harvest mature trees, but always leave a stand for future harvests.
3. Plant seedling trees on idle acres.
4. Make periodic thinning of woods for cash income to speed the growth rate of remaining trees.

Following some or all of these practices, Mr. Tuttle said, will make timber owners eligible to become members of the American Tree Farm System, a nationwide, voluntary movement of more than 14,000 persons who JACKSON, Wyo. (AP)—Barring an unexpected write-in campaign, Harry Clissold, 66, will be elected to his 12th or 13th term as mayor next Tuesday.

"It's been so long I can't remember," Clissold said when asked the date of his first election. It was 1935 or 1937.

"I've been trying to get someone to take the mayor's job for years, but just can't seem to get rid of it," he remarked.

NEWPORT, Ky. (AP)—The man who stripped down to his shorts Monday in a do-it-yourself

Certified tree farmers receive a certificate and a handsome green and white sign to post as badges of their good forestry. There are no fees nor dues connected with the program. Applications and other information are available from the Pennsylvania Forest Industries Committee, 321 Deuphin Building, Harrisburg, or from any graduate forester.

"What's the difference?" he asked. "These women come in here in shorts to do their laundry. Why can't I?"

"It's a difference of the shorts," Acting Police Court Judge Conrad G. Matz told him. Then he fined the man, James Hamlet, 59, of Cincinnati, $10 and costs.

WATSONVILLE, Calif. (AP)—A candidate for mayor Tuesday accused a candidate for alderman of deflating him—or rather the tires of his two campaign trucks.

Candidate William DeWorken filed the charge—unlawfully tampering with his motor vehicle without permission—against candidate Harold Perrault. He said two witnesses saw Perrault deflate the tires.

Municipal Judge Charles Francis took the case out of the campaign, scheduled a hearing May 12, the day after election.

DETROIT (AP)—Police said said Jamie Jones, 40, got so irritated when his wife nagged him as a poor fisherman that he deliberately walked off a Detroit river dock into the water. He was pulled out, treated at a hospital, and released.

"Well, I think it's pretty good," replied actress-singer Connie Stevens. "I'm only 20."

The judge then approved a seven-year Warner Bros. contract

MILL VALLEY, Calif. (AP)—One hundred twenty children were crammed into a mockup of a classroom here Tuesday, and met as a college prank.

Principal Joseph K. Womack of the Strawberry Point Elementary School was trying to convince Mill Valley voters that more classrooms are needed. The district will vote May 19 on a $800,000 bond issue to provide 20 more rooms.

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Band leader Hal McIntyre, 44, died Tuesday of burns suffered in a Hollywood apartment fire.

He was found Sunday huddled under a blanket on the kitchen floor of his vocalist's apartment. Firemen said he apparently fell asleep while smoking.

LONG-RANGE FOREST PROGRAM

Representative George M. Grant, of Alabama, chairman of the Subcommittee on Forests, of the House Agriculture Committee, announces hearings will be held Thursday and Friday, May 14 and 15, on long-range conservation and development program for the national forests, submitted to Congress by the Secretary of Agriculture March 24.

According to a document just received by the Times-Mirror the program sets up long-range objectives looking to the year 2000. It also outlines interim action concerned with what needs to be done in the next 10 - 15 years to mesh with the long-range objectives and meet current demands. The report is the result of several years of study on the part of the Forest Service and follows up the less comprehensive reports dealing with development of recreational resources and with timber needs and resources.

The lead-off witness at the hearing will be spokesmen for the Department of Agriculture and the Forest Service who will discuss the program in greater detail and present estimates of the cost involved.

Other witnesses will include spokesmen for organizations and industries interested in the national forests and their administration.

Our informant advises that Congressman Leon H. Gavin, of this district, is keenly interested in this move, and is expected to be called as a witness.

Congressman Grant says he hopes to confine the hearings to two days of testimony. In view of the widespread interest in the subject, however, he says the hearing record will be held open for several days after the sessions and statements commenting on the plan from witnesses who do not appear in person will be included in the printed record. He urges organizations and individuals outside Washington who want to comment on the Forest Service plan to do so by means of written statements, rather than by oral testimony at the hearings, which will be held in the Agriculture Committee room, 1310 New House Office Building, Washington, D. C., on the dates mentioned above beginning at ten a. m. They will be open to the public.

Since the project involves the Allegheny National Forest it may be well to remind that requests for permission to testify at the hearing or to file written statements should be addressed to the Clerk of the Committee or Agriculture, House of Representatives.

WORLD TODAY

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — You're a rare one if you are not befogged and bedazzled by all the American and Soviet talk—going on for years—about disarmament, suspending nuclear tests, and abolishing nuclear weapons.

The result of all the talk so far is zero. There will be more. But here in ABC form, is an interpretation of what this government wants, doesn't want, and why.

It is based on answers given by the State Department to a series of questions from the Senate Disarmament subcommittee, headed by Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, Minnesota Democrat.

Arms control, or disarmament, can be undertaken only to the degree that it can be enforced. This means some kind of inspection system to prevent cheating by either side.

But American scientists have not been able to develop any techniques that would make it possible to enforce an agreement outlawing nuclear weapons.

So it follows that even if there were an agreement on banning nuclear tests, it would not mean that nuclear weapons already in the hands of the United States and the U.S.S.R. would be destroyed.

Therefore, the possibility of nuclear war, even though the big powers agree not to do any more testing, will hang over the world's head a long, long time.

It would be to the disadvantage of this country to have an agreement banning the use of nuclear weapons in war—even if both sides lived up to an agreement not to use them. Why?

Because—since the Soviet, Red Chinese and satellite ground forces so hugely outnumber the Western ground forces—America's possession of nuclear weapons helps it offset the manpower advantage of the Communists. How?

Because so long as this country has nuclear weapons that can be used in swift retaliation if the munists will be discouraged from starting one.

Therefore, the State Department says, this country has always insisted that disarmament be carried out in a balanced way so the Soviets would not be left with a military advantage.

In short, the United States refuses to go along with outlawing nuclear weapons alone. It wants balanced arms limitation, foolproof inspection and controls.

Arms limitation would include conventional weapons, because this country insists on balanced disarmament.

The State Department says: "We have insisted that each step in one field of military strength must be complemented with a similar step in other fields, and that all must be verified by international inspection."

But since the department says there is no way of knowing that the Soviet Union had destroyed its stocks of nuclear weapons—if it agreed to destroy them—it is easy to see how far off is any agreement on destroying nuclear weapons.

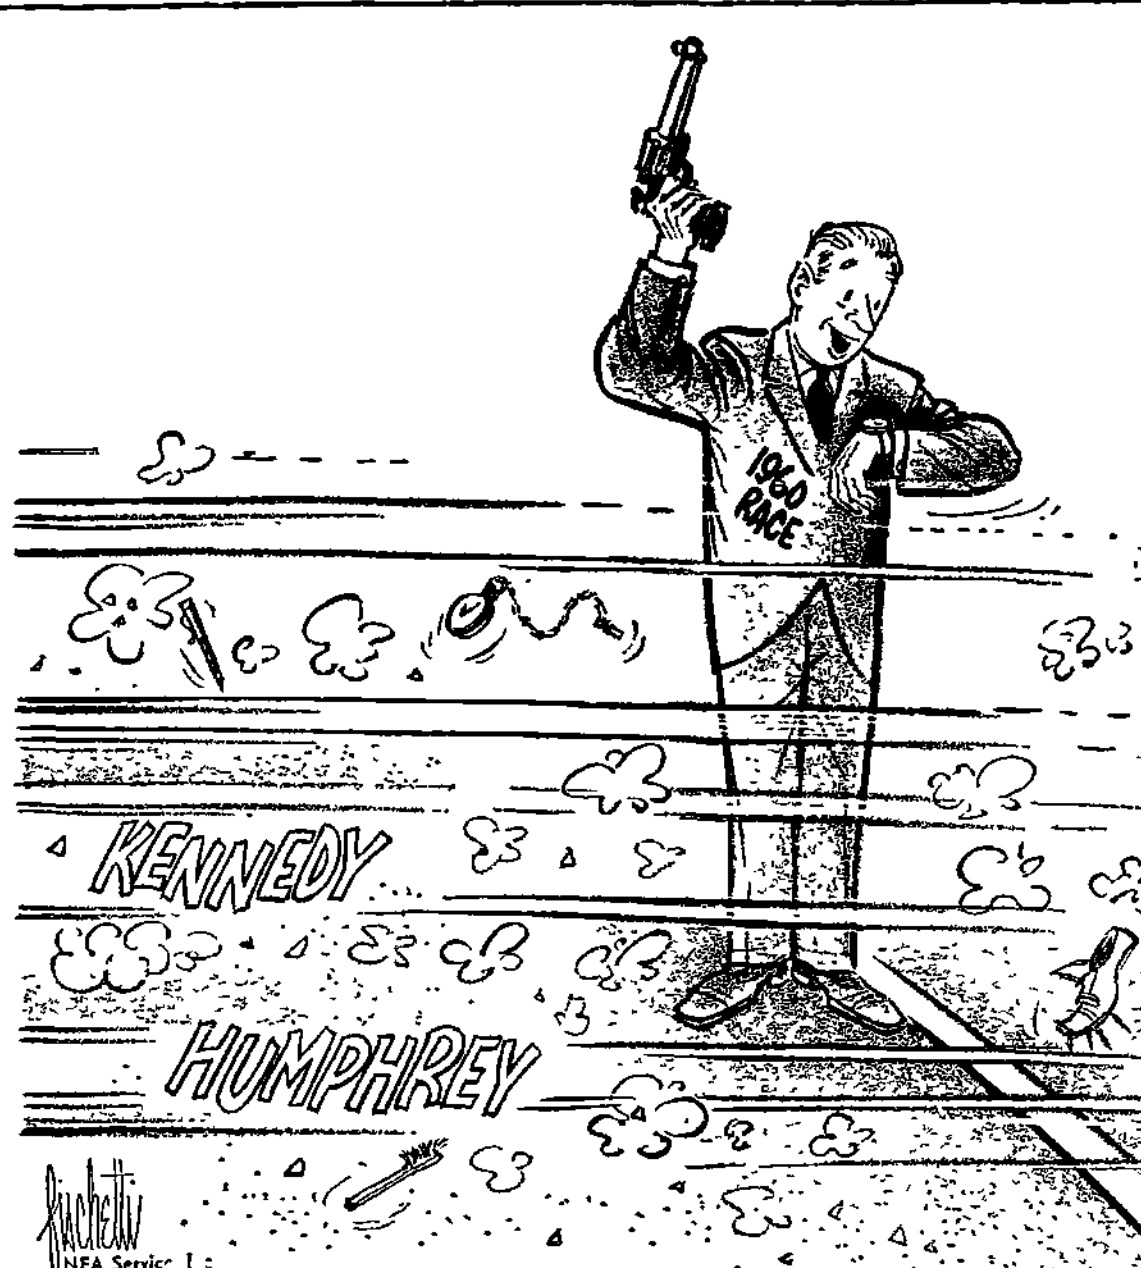

And since this country links all the steps in disarmament together, any disarmament looks a long way off, too.

As more nations—besides the United States, Britain and the Soviet Union—develop the ability to make nuclear weapons, it will be increasingly difficult to have a safeguarded disarmament agreement covering all types of nuclear weapons.

For instance, the department says that if Red China reached the point of being able to make nuclear weapons, no disarmament agreement based on Red Chinese commitments alone could be relied on to curb Peiping production of the weapons.

If this were a weather forecast on the prospects for world disarmament, it would have to say: out-

"On Your Mark . . ."

Here and There

May 6th, 1899, sixty years ago, there appeared on the first page of the Warren Weekly Mirror an article under the heading "New Hospital Assured", which makes interesting reading with the near approach of National Nursing Week. It says: "Warren is to have a new hospital. The same progressive spirit that made possible the erection of our new High School, unsurpassed in beauty of architecture, durability of construction and utility of purpose; the same motives that prompted the projects that culminated in the YMCA and two new churches, has concentrated its efforts toward a hospital, and now it is almost an absolute certainty that such an institution will be ready for reception of patients before another year has elapsed. Thus far the plans have been confined practically to four of Warren's philanthropic citizens, each of whom has agreed to donate $5,000 toward the project. This combined with an appropriation from the state of $2,000, and Congressman Sibley's contribution of $2,000 makes a handsome nucleus. Further definite information is lacking. An interview with Mr. Myron Waters, one of the parties most deeply interested in the scheme, however, verifies the statement that plans are crystallizing toward that end. Already some discussion has arisen regarding the site of the proposed building. It is the opinion of some that the hospital should be situated in Pleasant (south side), where ample grounds could be afforded for the benefit of the convalescing patients, and where pure and invigorating atmosphere would be assured at all times. Mr. Waters favors a site within the borough limits and has suggested a plot of ground located at the northern terminal of East Water street as the most available and best adapted for the purpose intended. He believes that the building should be surrounded on all four sides by wide, sweeping verandas, and that ground outside the building is not a necessity. In his opinion when patients have recovered sufficiently to roam about pleasure grounds they would be ready and anxious to return to their rooms. An organization will probably be effected some time in the near future and the project will then assume a more definite shape. This has proven to be the most worthy enterprise that any community can undertake, and everyone will be afforded an opportunity to contribute toward this much-needed charity. Emergency hospital has done incalculable good during its comparatively short existence, and the good women who have labored so heroically for its maintenance, in the face of many obstacles, deserve unlimited credit for their devotion to the cause. It will indeed be gratifying to them to know that the work so nobly carried on by them has led to the inception for a more extended project along the same line. Our citizens will watch with interest the progress being made toward the erection of a new hospital."

And on the same page we find this interesting article about "The Class of 1899": The largest class in the history of the Warren High School will be graduated from that institution in June, when 32 will be awarded diplomas. The requirements are so stringent that this number only includes those who are perfectly qualified to have conferred upon them the honor of belonging to the Alumni of the Warren High School. The prospective graduates are unusually busy preparing for the final examination ordeal and completing arrangements for the commencement exercises which will occur either on June 6 or 8. The personnel of the class is: Maud A. Bartholomew, Harriet M. Bauman, Harriet M. Cobb, Harriet L. Cowan, Clara B. Cowan, Mable L. Davis, Clara B. Dunham, Ella M. Giegerich, Florence M. Hertzell, Edith A. Langdale, Mary H. Lanning, Ethel E. McCray, Sara A. Moll, Maggie M. Mooney, Clara B. Olsen, Bessie K. Phillips, Alice Russell, Eliza M. Saunders, Eda C. Werle, Jessie A. Williams, Geo. H. Betts, H. Wayne Branch, Lyle R. Briggs, Harold C. George, Leon A. Kehr, Harry D. Kopf, Jerome J. Morgan, Earl B. Norris, Arthur S. O'Neil, Ernest G. Rogers, Jonah M. Shear, Carroll R. Smith, Fred C. Sonne. Those selected to read essays are Maud Bartholomew, Edith Langdale, Clara Cowan, Jerome Morgan and Lyle Briggs. The motto selected by the class is "No Laurels Without Labor". Gold and turquoise blue are the colors. On account of the jealousy usually engendered by conferring special honors for high attainment in scholarship that custom was abandoned this year by order of the board."

President Eisenhower in proclaiming May 3 to 9 as National Youth Fitness Week, said in part " . . . the ongoing strength of our nation depends upon the health of our young people . . . we must always strive to improve the fitness of our youth by determined and coordinated efforts." Such determination and effort is evidenced today by more than 2,250,000 young people throughout the country who have solemnly pledged "their health to better living." They are the nation's 4-H Club members. Health represents one of the four H's of the symbolic green and white four-leaf clover

India, Pakistan Disputes Pale in Face of Red Menace

BY PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—The Chinese Communist takeover in Tibet is seen here as having possibly one good effect. If it forces India and Pakistan to realize that they both face a common danger from the north, they might be induced to settle their long-standing differences with each other.

First evidence that the two countries might be in a mood to patch up their quarrels was revealed in the recent signing in Washington of a new temporary agreement on division of water in the Indus River tributaries.

Mediator in this instance was the World Bank. The agreement was signed by Pakistan's new Ambassador to Washington Aziz Ahmad and Indian Minister for Power N. D. Gublati, who came here for the negotiations.

There is no sign yet that India and Pakistan are ready to settle their principal hassle—over Kashmir. All efforts to mediate that dispute through the United Nations or by direct negotiations have so far been futile.

BUT A RED BUILD-UP NOW REPORTED all along China's southern border would threaten not only India, but also Nepal, Bhutan and Kashmir as well. In this situation, India may need any support she can get, including that of Pakistan. If India goes down Pakistan goes with her and vice versa. There's a need for their co-operation.

British Commonwealth of Nations is regarded here as the logical place in which differences between two of its members should be settled. But prime ministers of the Commonwealth countries meet only once a year.

The British government has apparently shunned any action that would antagonize or show partiality for either India or Pakistan. No conciliation efforts are under way. In this situation, the good offices of both the United Nations and the United States could be used to advantage.

IN THE PAST, BOTH INDIA AND PAKISTAN have been critical of U.S. aid to the other. India has criticized the United States for giving military assistance to Pakistan. The amount of this aid is secret. But Pakistan is a good member of both the South-east Asia and Baghdad pacts. U.S. military aid has been offered to India, but has been refused.

Pakistan, on the other hand, criticizes the United States for giving more economic aid to India the neutral than has been given to its open ally against communism.

The recent shooting down of an Indian photo reconnaissance plane over Pakistan added fuel to this fire.

ACTUALLY, THE TWO COUNTRIES HAVE both fared well on U.S. aid. On straight economic assistance, 1951 through 1958, India has received 346 million dollars in grants, Pakistan 266 million.

From the Washington angle, neither country has much cause for complaint. Both countries have shaky economies and need all the help they can get.

If they would settle their differences with each other and devote this energy to building up their internal economies and their defenses against aggression from their common enemy to the north, it would be regarded here as a net gain for the free world. The irony of the situation would be that it was Red China which forced them to agree.

The national 4-H Health program has four specific objectives outlined by the Cooperative Extension Service. They are: (1) learn that physical and mental fitness depends on health (2) acquire desirable personal health practices and attitudes (3) share responsibility for improving family and community health (4) develop leadership, character, citizenship. When the boys and girls have advanced their project work sufficiently, their records are entered in competition for awards provided by Eli Lilly and Company which supports the 4-H Health program nationally. How to Keep Well

By Dr. Theodore R. Van Dellen
(© 1958: By The Chicago Tribune)

To the limit of space, questions pertaining to the prevention of disease will be answered. Personal replies will be made when return stamped envelope is inclosed. Telephone inquiries not accepted. Dr. Van Dellen will not make diagnoses or prescribe for individual diseases.

THE DIABETIC CHILD

Diabetes in children is likely to be more severe than it is in adults. The majority of these youngsters receive prompt care because the typical manifestations develop rapidly. This alerts most parents and they recognize that all is not well at the beginning of the disease.

Early signs of diabetes are polyphagia, polydipsia, and polyuria—in other words, increased appetite, increased thirst, and increased urination. The latter may manifest itself as bedwetting in children; and a likely indication of polydipsia is a marked desire for cokes, milk, and other liquids.

All growing children are hungry and eat as though they had a hollow leg. The diabetic boy or girl is no different, but loses weight instead of gaining it. When this occurs, most parents are concerned and bring the child to the family doctor.

These youngsters have severe diabetes and need insulin and a strict diet to survive. This regimen is not always easy to sell except in the older or more serious and emotionally mature child. Their hunger knows no bounds and many goodies are not on their list.

The small fry resent being different—they want to go along with the crowd. It is difficult to pass up candy, hot dogs, and soft drinks when others are ordering them. In addition, getting a daily insulin injection is no fun. Dr. Van Dellen has a list of books on diabetes that he will send if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.

The new anti-diabetic pills usually are not effective in child diabetics. But they do well on insulin. Before its introduction in 1922, their life expectancy was two years. We do not know what it is today. Many who developed the disease in childhood or young adulthood are still alive. They are thoroughly indoctrinated about the nature of their ailment and have accepted the fact that while treatment is a handicap, it is a small price to pay for life.

TOMORROW: A new remedy for gout.

SPLIT SOLE

Mrs. H. writes: My aunt has a slight split on the sole of her foot, with a stubborn callus surrounding it. Could you recommend a powder or a pad for it?

REPLY
Pads help take off pressure from the callous but they are tricky to put on. Best results are obtained when they are fitted by a physician who specializes in this condition.

EXAM FOR APPENDICITIS

H. G. writes: Is there any way for a person to tell whether he has appendicitis, other than to wait for a severe attack?

REPLY
Fluoroscopic examination of the colon may help along this line because it allows the physician to localize the exact site of pain. Furthermore, if the appendix fills with barium, there is a good possibility that it is normal. However, most persons who believe they are suffering from mild attacks of appendicitis have a severe bowel.

OVERWORKED HEART

T. G. writes: What is hypertensive heart disease?

REPLY
The strain of having high blood pressure may cause the heart to enlarge and the coronary arteries to harden sooner than usual. When these changes develop, the individual is said to have hypertensive heart disease.

EMETICS

W. S. writes: What is best to make a child vomit after swallowing poison?

REPLY
Insert a finger or a spoon into the back of the throat to make the child gag and throw up. Other methods consist of swallowing warm water or a solution containing a tablespoonful of table salt, baking soda, or dry mustard to a glass of water. A child who has swallowed a strong acid or caustic should not be made to vomit, as the poison may burn a second time.

BOON (AP)—Americans shopping for a plant site in the European common market will find the six nations differ widely in many respects — taxes, labor costs, material costs, restrictions in importation of raw materials, and in the consumer market they offer.

The six also have many squabbles among themselves yet to be solved.

"Americans should take into account all the factors," says West German Finance Minister Franz Eitel. "Low wages alone doesn't justify a factory site."

He refers to the often heard charge that Germany is a high wage country compared, say, with Italy. Other members of the common market are France, Holland, Belgium and Luxembourg.

"There are wage differentials in Germany, too," Eitel notes. "Bavaria has a lower scale than does the Ruhr."

Germany has higher direct taxes than some of the others, but lower indirect taxes—the partial hidden taxes that add to the cost of living in the long run but not necessarily to the initial production of goods.

This has been giving German steel producers a headache.

"French steel is a problem," Eitel admits, "since it can be sold here cheaper than German steel can be produced. The reasons are many. French steel mills may be more modern. Devaluation of the franc gave them an advantage."

"But tax differences are the chief stumbling block. German direct taxes are high and French low. The French try to balance their federal budget by high indirect taxes, while ours are low."

"Because of the low direct tax on steel production in France compared with the high one here, the European coal and steel community has put a 6 per cent tax on French steel exported here, or some 30 to 40 marks per ton. We think the tax should be 10 per cent."

"But this is another of the common market's growing pains that will be eased in time."

Still another problem is the differing currencies of the six. Common money is the ultimate goal.

More Teen-Agers Qualified for Candy Striper Pins at Hospital

Mrs. Stewart Beckley, director of the Candy Strippers' volunteer service program at Warren General Hospital, announces five more girls will receive Service Pins denoting completion of 100 hours of duty at the hospital. They are Nancy E. Carlson, Gloria Davis, Nancy Fredrickson, Carol Nilsen and Jane Still.

A training class for new Candy Strippers will be held at the hospital at 9:45 a. m. Saturday, May 23, and all girls who have made application are asked to be present. Girls must be 15 years of age in order to apply and may secure blanks for that purpose in the guidance offices of any Warren or county high school.

With conclusion of the third year of this teen-age program and start of the fourth, Mrs. Beckley reports over 150 teen-age girls have been trained for volunteer duties at the local hospital and many of these Candy Strippers have served over 100 hours before taking the valuable knowledge of this experience on to college and careers of their choice.

Candy Strippers are given a basic understanding of most of the services at the hospital. Their duties render a great service to the community while they develop an understanding of "how the hospital operates, and an appreciation of the nursing profession and other careers offered through this training. They also realize the great value of volunteer services to the hospital.

A patient's first impression of the hospital may be through a Candy Stripper who is on duty to help with admissions. Later, one of these teen-agers may bring the Notions or Book Carts to the patient's room; another may assist patients to X-ray or physiotherapy departments. Family or friends of a patient might be served sandwiches and coffee by a Candy Stripper in the Snack Bar, many others help nurses by entertaining or feeding children in the pediatrics ward.

"Candy Strippers are our Personality Girls," Mrs. Beckley states. "They are selected and trained toward development of their best individual qualities of initiative, poise, tact, and responsibility. They are taught a positive psychology is necessary in giving the best service to the hospital and patients. They perform their duties in keeping with highest ethical standards."

To be a Candy Stripper, each girl must live up to her Candy Stripper Volunteer Pledge, which is:

Believing that the Warren General Hospital has a real need of my service as a Candy Stripper Volunteer.

I will be punctual and conscientious in the fulfillment of my duties and accept supervision graciously.

I will conduct myself with dignity, courtesy and consideration.

I will consider as confidential all information which I may hear directly or indirectly concerning a patient, doctor, or nurse; and I will seek no information about a patient.

I will take any problems, criticism, or suggestions to my Candy Stripper Director.

I will endeavor to make my work professional in quality.

I will uphold the traditions and standards of the Candy Strippers at all times.

Y-Teens Plan Dance as Cancer Benefit

According to the general chairman, Pat Lanman, plans have been completed by the High School Y-Teens for their annual Turnabout Dance and this year's general theme will be "Circus Time."

With the function scheduled for Saturday night of this week, the YWCA gym will be transformed into a Big Top for a one-night stand. Emmie Emerson and his band will tap out the beat for footwork, with dancing from 8:30 until 12:30, and there will be refreshments for all attending.

Dress for the spring event will be casual, informal. According to a spokesman for the dance, tickets are for couples only and are selling well, with a good crowd anticipated.

The Y-Teens have planned to give a percentage of each ticket sold to the 1959 Cancer

Crusade Fund, and while the guys and gals have fun under the Big Top, they will be contributing with their portion of the proceeds to the urgent fight against cancer, the nation's number two disease killer.

Tickets are available from any Y-Teen member and the girls who have not already done so are urged to invite their bashful beaux to join in the fun and help the fund.

Youngsville BIC Class Has Play

The public will once again have the pleasure of seeing the play, "The Light Within," which is being presented by members of the BIC Class and some young people of the parish at 8:00 p. m. Tuesday, May 12, in Youngsville EUB church.

The play, directed by Bill Meelen and Henry Brooks, Jr., promises to be very interesting, with the following participating: Ruth Abbey, James Thompson, Rev. F. Eugene Donelson, Lorraine Brooks, Lois Brown, Kathleen Cowan, Ruth Stewart, Bob Oehlenschlaeger, Linda Forsberg, Joe Aiello, Tom Bailey, Clifford Abbey and Henry Brooks, Jr.

Each year the BIC Class presents a play for the challenge and enjoyment of the public. There is no admission charge, but a free will offering will be taken, proceeds to go toward the new educational unit, which has been started between the existing church and parsonage.

Meeting on Mentally Retarded Hears Author

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — "We Americans believe there is something wrong with research which doesn't produce a cure. No cure, and research is set down as only a cult."

Dr. Margaret Mead, noted author and anthropologist, summed up in this way what she considers mistaken notions about getting results in science, especially in work with mentally retarded children.

She addressed a conference devoted to improving programs for the mentally handicapped. It is sponsored by the Woods Schools in nearby Langhorne and by the technical planning project of the American Assn. on Mental Deficiency.

"We are overwhelmingly behind medical research to produce more wonder drugs and cure more diseases," Dr. Mead said, "but we are unwilling to investigate anything unless we can somehow change it."

"Research on the mentally retarded confronts us with an uncomfortable dilemma. It yields no such rewards as research on the gifted, and many research workers do not want to be identified with projects for which they can muster very little understanding."

Questions and Answers

Q. I am a service-disabled veteran drawing extra compensation because I have a 17-year-old son. He has just enlisted in the Marines. Will the extra payments continue, since he has not yet reached age 18?

A. Yes. The extra payments will go forward until he reaches age 18, even though he is in service.

Q. I converted my World War II GI term insurance to a VA endowment plan some years ago and am having difficulty right now in meeting the premiums. Is it possible for me to change back to term insurance until I'm better fixed financially?

A. No. You may not switch from a permanent plan back to term. You can, however, change to a permanent plan policy with a lower premium, such as an ordinary life policy. This is despite the wording on your policy which says no change is possible, for the law was recently modified.

Q. Does a handicapped child of a deceased veteran have to wait until age 18 to start training under the War Orphans Education program?

A. No. A law passed recently gives such children the right to begin special types of War Orphans training when they reach age 14.

Q. VA has just informed me I can exchange my Korean GI term insurance policy to one

News of Hollywood

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD (AP)—His millions of teen-age fans will be interested to know that singer Paul Anka has school problems, too.

Paul is the 17-year-old Canadian who claims eight gold records for one record alone—"Diana," which he composed himself. He is here for his first movie, "Girls Town," and he ran smack-dab into California laws concerning under-age actors.

"I finished my junior year in high school in my home town, Ottawa, and I quit," he said in his Beverly Hilton Hotel suite. "I was traveling around the world too much to continue school work."

"But the California law says I have to keep studying until I'm 18, which is three months away. So every day at the studio I have to spend three hours at school work."

Paul argues that he's getting his education through travel. His argument is pretty convincing. In two years, he has sung from Tokyo to Algiers.

"Everywhere I go, I try to learn about the people," he said. "When I was in Algiers, I wanted to see the rebels and how they lived. I went right into their country."

The lad didn't get shot at, perhaps because he looked like one of them. His grandparents came from Lebanon.

Paul's sagi is another example of the fantastic music business. In his early teens, he formed a quartet called the Bobbysoxers in Ottawa. The group was soon earning $250 a week. Paul quit to become a single singer, and his school grades suffered as he gained success.

His alarmed parents sent him to Los Angeles to live with his uncle Maurice. But Maurice was an actor and he encouraged Paul's ambitions. They wrote a song which Paul recorded with scant success.

The boy went to New York to conquer the record industry. ABC-Paramount Records liked the three songs he presented and asked for another. Paul overnight produced a song he had once dreamed up for a hometown girl. That was "Diana," the rest is history, of the teen-age variety.

Pittsburgh Rabbi Addresses Penn'a Women's Meeting

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A rabbi said today religious understanding between Christians and Jews can come only through respect and not tolerance.

"The time has long since passed for us all to rid ourselves of the shameful ideal of tolerance in our interfaith consideration," said Rabbi Harold Silver of Pittsburgh in an address prepared for the closing session of the 68th annual convention of the Pennsylvania Federation of Women's Clubs.

Rabbi Silver said tolerance implies permissiveness, exclusiveness and superiority, "which is the exact opposite of what brotherhood implies."

"Club women," said Rabbi Silver, "should earnestly gear their state-wide and nation-wide programming to achieve the more fitting ideal of respect rather than tolerance."

Delegates unanimously adopted a resolution Tuesday urging legislation to compel inoculation of children against polio before their admission to school.

The group also urged that government expenditures on all levels be kept within the limits of

MY MOM!

By Elizabeth M. Dufresne

My mom is just the sweetest thing
That I have ever known.
I wish I had the patience
And the courage she has shown.

She shares with me my happiness,
She shares with me my tears.
She gave her love and kindness
To me, through all these years.

She taught me how to "tell the truth
No matter what I do"
And do unto others
As I would have them do.

She was my nurse when I was ill.
The "doctor" for my doll.
She taught me to be generous
And kind, to one and all.

She was my teacher while I learned
To cook, and bake, and sew.
I am responsible to her
For nearly all I know.

She was a patient listener
To all I had to say.
She taught me that there is a God.
She taught me how to pray.

All through these years she has been
My comfort and my guide.
I am as proud, as proud can be
To have her by my side.

I'll give her "special" love and flowers,
That she'll enjoy to-day.
For no one knows when God may choose
To take my mom away.

I'll tell her now while she is near
How much she means to me.
For I know love is all she wants
For all she's done for me.

Woman Judge Is Named American Mother of 1959

By DOROTHY ROE

NEW YORK (AP)—Jennie Loitman Barron of Brookline, Mass., judge of the Superior Court of Massachusetts and grandmother of seven, was named today the American Mother of 1959.

Announcement was made by Mrs. Daniel A. Poling, president of the American Mothers Committee Inc., before a distinguished group of mothers chosen from each state, assembled at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel to hear the decision of the national jury.

Judge Barron is the mother of three daughters. Throughout her life she has been active in community, state and national organizations. Although she has been outstanding in her profession of law since her marriage, she always put her duties as wife and mother ahead of professional demands.

Born and educated in Boston, Judge Barron is the daughter of Russian immigrants. She received her B.A., LL.B. and LL.M. degrees from Boston University and in 1918 was married to Samuel Barron Jr., a lawyer. They practiced law as the firm of Barron and Barron.

Their daughters, all graduates of Wellesley College are: Emma, now Mrs. Philip Wernick, mother of three sons; Deborah Blazer, who died in 1956, leaving three children; Joy, the youngest, also a practicing attorney, mother of one, and wife of Dr. William B. Rachlin, a surgeon. Both surviving daughters are active in community work in and around Boston.

Selection of the mother of the year is based on six qualifications: First, she must be a successful mother. Second, she must be an active member of a religious body. Third, she must embody the traits of courage, cheerfulness, patience, affection, kindness, understanding and homemaking ability. Fourth, she must exemplify in her life the precepts of the Golden Rule. Fifth, she must be active in public affairs. Sixth, she must be qualified to represent the mothers of America in all responsibilities attached to her role as mother of the year.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
UNION CITY, Pa. (AP)—Damage estimated at $20,000 resulted from a fire which swept two two-story frame houses in this Erie County community Tuesday. Four firemen were slightly hurt.
Fire Chief Francis Wontenay of Union City, who made the estimate, said the blaze started when a 50-gallon drum of gasoline exploded in the garage of one of the homes.

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Edward L. Flaherty, Allegheny County Republican chairman, has changed his mind and announced that he will stay in the race for nomination as county commissioner.
Last week Flaherty said he was withdrawing in the interest of party harmony. However, he said, Tuesday there has been no indication his withdrawal would serve that end.

WAYNESBURG, Pa. (AP) — John Grimm, 37, of Thompson No. 2 in Greene County, was killed Tuesday in a slate fall at the Emerald Coal and Coke Co.'s Charters mine near Mather.

PITTSBURGH (AP) — A.M. Byers Co today announced the appointment of William J. Hamley of Beaver Falls as production control supervisor at its South Pittsburgh plant.
Hamley previously was associated with ALWAC Computer Division of El-Tronics, Inc., Hawthorne, Calif., and the Garrett Corp., Los Angeles.

BLAIRSVILLE, Pa. (AP)—Two 24-year-old Indiana County men were killed instantly today when their sports car collided with a tractor-trailer on Route 22 just west of Armagh.

The victims were Cecil Fry of Seward, the driver, and Emil Burda of Armagh. A second passenger, Gerald Coughenour, 22, also of Armagh, was admitted to Lee Hospital, Johnstown, in serious condition.

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Iron Age, the national metalworking magazine, said today Pittsburgh district steel mills are expected to operate at 97.5 per cent of capacity this week. This would be one point higher than last week's actual rate.

Gavin Seeks Fed. Fish Hatchery for Northwestern Pa.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Le-on H. Gavin (R-Pa.) wants Congress to authorize construction of a fish hatchery in northwestern Pennsylvania.
Gavin said Tuesday before a House Subcommittee on Fish and Wildlife Conservation that there is a great need for a hatchery in the area.
He recalled that the House passed a bill authorizing the project two years ago, but that no action was taken by the Senate.
A. V. Tunison, assistant director of the Bureau of Sport Fisheries, told the subcommittee the hatchery would cost an estimated $800,000.
He pointed out that there is only one small federal hatchery in the area, near Warren.

Capsule With Greeting on Way to Titusville by Pipe

CORSICANA, Tex. (AP) — A capsule containing greetings from 33 oil state governors to Gov. Lawrence is on its way to Titusville, Pa., via oil pipeline.
The capsule is expected to arrive in about a month after a 1,250-mile journey. The unique event is part of the oil centennial celebration marking the drilling of the first commercial oil well near Titusville a century ago.
Ernest O. Thompson, chairman of the Texas Oil Regulation Agency, placed the capsule in a pipeline at Corsicana Tuesday. It was attached to a device used to clean pipelines.
The ceremonies were linked to Titusville and New York by phone hookup. Thompson, in a speech, said the industry "is in the best position for stable progress" in 27 years.

At Titusville, Ned H. Dearborn, president of Oil Centennial, Inc., and R. L. Lockwood of Oil City, president of the National Transit Co., extended an invitation to those at Corsicana to attend the centennial celebration in Titusville.

DESTINATION: SOUTH SEA ISLES

ON THEIR WAY—The sail-equipped raft Cantuta II attracted a throng of spectators before it was towed out to sea at Callao, Peru, to begin a voyage which may end in the South Sea Islands (top photo). Four men make up its crew, and they hope the wind and ocean currents will carry it to its destination. Below, it's being towed out for a start.

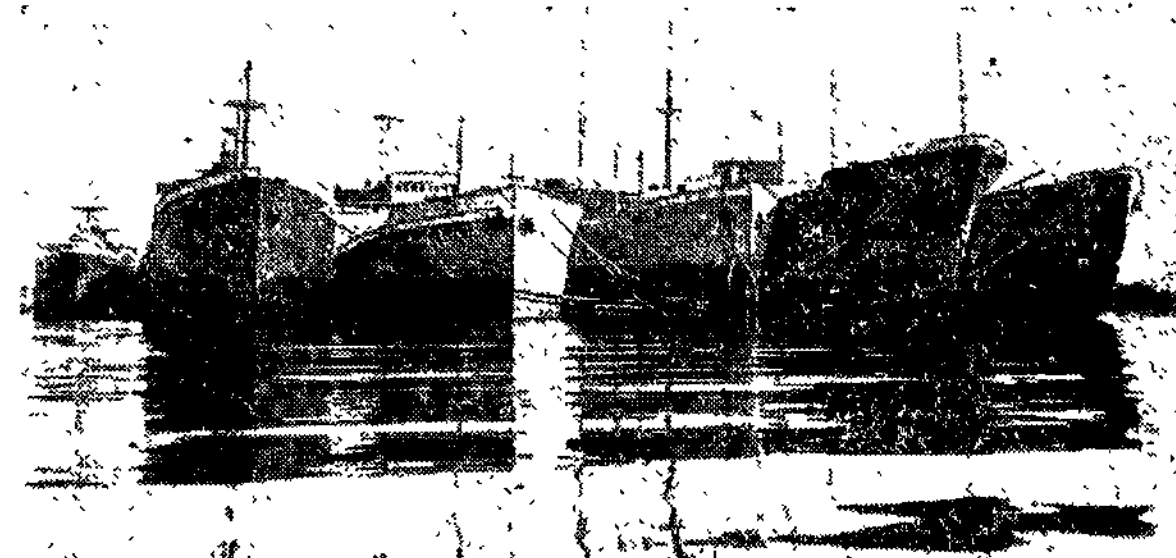

ONCE OVER ROUGHLY—Mel Barker (left), Texas welter-weight champ, and Emilie Griffith, of New York, are trading blows during their 10-round bout in Manhattan. The fight went the limit with Griffith winning by a unanimous vote.

DISTINGUISHED VISITOR—Actor Scott Brady (left) is giving former President Harry Truman a pointer in using a rifle backstage at "Destry Rides Again" in Manhattan, as Dolores Gray and Andy Griffith (right) look on. Mr. Truman congratulated the stars.

PICTURE NEWS

AROUND THE WORLD

BIDDING THEIR TIME—Much against their will, however, for these West German merchant ships are riding high and dry in Hamburg because of economic doldrums. While their owners hope for cargoes which will end the enforced idleness, about 85 tankers and freighters are tied up in the area. This was the "ship cemetery" during depression days of the '30s.

IN REGAL SPLENDOR—When he officially opened his new barber shop in Dallas, Tex., customers of L. A. Groce found he had something there. R. R. (Bob) Wells, of Eagle Lake, was the first man to be shorn amid the antiques which include spittoons and a carved hatrack (right). Candy-striped wallpaper, a checkerboard floor and a pot belly stove complete the old-time atmosphere. Younger clients won't recall this splendor, but at least they can appreciate it.

ACCENTING YOUTH—In Paris, Michel Goma chooses pale blue linen for a cleverly collared suit with short, self-tied jacket. The skirt is slightly gathered at the waist. A purple blouse and purple tulle turban complete the costume.

IT'S IN THE FAMILY—A member of the Kwakiutl Indian tribe from the Alert Bay area of British Columbia, Canada, Mrs. Ellen Neel is the fifth generation of a wood carving family. Her carvings are sold to museums and private collectors at prices ranging from one dollar to $5,000. Mrs. Neel's seven children are all experienced carvers, too.

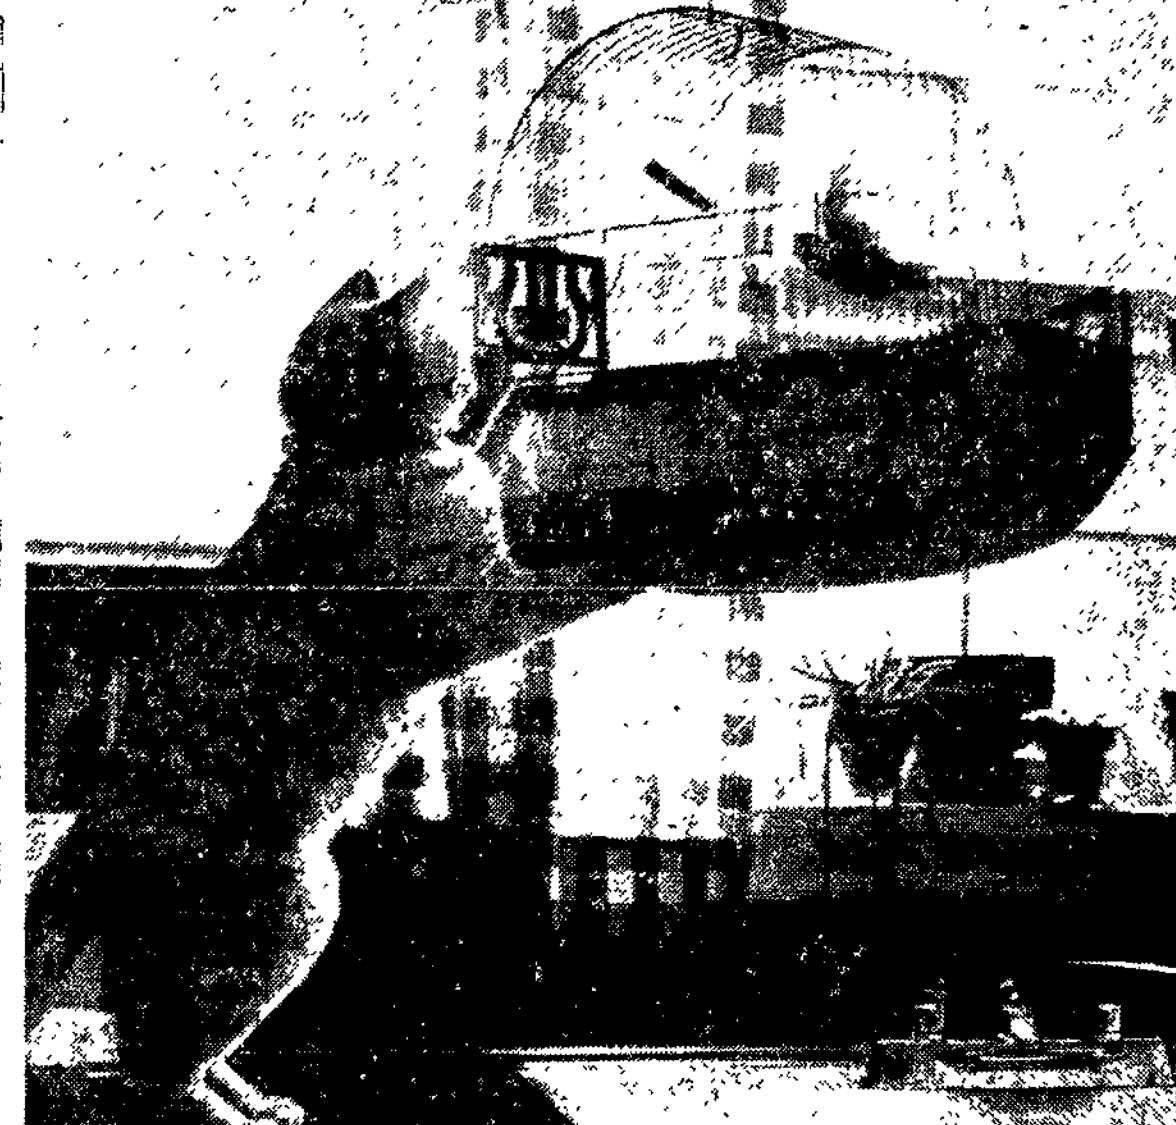

HOW IT'S DONE—A canal that runs along private homes in picturesque Delft, The Netherlands, poses a bit of a problem for window cleaners. An extra-long ladder placed in the water, with a small ladder serving as a gangway from the sidewalk, solves the problem for this man.

GREAT DAY—Citizens of Tananarive, the capital of Madagascar, find it's "business as usual" as they stroll through the Zuma market on a sunny day. Things had apparently returned to normal in this picturesque city after disastrous floods had swept devastatingly through the area, leaving considerable damage in their wake.

SHE WON OUT—After a female robin built her nest five times on the top of a milk box at the home of William Sifers, in McKees Rocks, near Pittsburgh, Pa., Sifers stopped destroying her home and let her have her way. Each time the bird patiently rebuilt, and now she's expecting triplets. She ignores the family as they pass by.

TROUBLE MAKER—The Rev. and Mrs. Arthur V. Swinchart, of Austintown, Ohio, own the cat and the parakeet—and never these twain shall meet without disaster to the bird. Puss has jumped onto the kitchen sink counter for a too-close inspection of his heart's desire.

Survey Reveals Marriage Helpful To Collegians

SANTA BARBARA, Calif. (AP)—Is Junior having trouble making the grade in college? Marriage might help.

That's a key conclusion drawn from a survey of 400 married, male college students at the University of California at Santa Barbara.

Going home to a wife and family is a lot better for a student than pounding a pavement in search of entertainment, reports Dr. Joseph E. Lantagne, head of the school's physical education department.

Lantagne says scholarship improved in 80 per cent of those interviewed after marriage and only 8 per cent reported worse grades.

Married students do better work he adds, because "They are more secure, budget their time better and have a purpose. They want to succeed."

As normal maturing adults, Lantagne says, college students require normal sexual outlets—and these are best found in a happy marriage.

"Providing the students are emotionally mature, adults should encourage earlier marriages if they expect maximum productivity while these young adults are attending college," he adds. "Marriage is probably the finest safeguard against delinquency."

About 10 per cent of all college students get married before graduation, Lantagne says.

Morris Gouger of Robstown who won the Texas Men's Pair Championship in El Paso last month helped his cause no end with today's hand when he picked up everything that was not nailed down.

Just bidding and making game would have been a good stunt, but making five trump with a little help from the opposition was a real top.

West's opening diamond lead started the ball rolling. Dummy's jack held the trick. Morris led the deuce of spades and when East played low he played the eight. He had to lose a spade trick sometime or other in any case.

After the eight held it was a simple matter to play the ace-king and another spade and give East one trick in that suit. East led back the queen of hearts. Morris won with the ace and cashed his last spade and the ace and king of diamonds.

Meanwhile, West had discarded one club and East hung on to all four of his clubs. Now Morris played ace and ten of clubs. When West showed out he let the ten spot ride. East took his jack but had to give dummy the last two tricks.

NEW YORK (AP)—As if our world weren't already topsy-turvy enough, now along comes a Frenchman who says the English can see the point of a joke quicker than Americans.

"The English have a very good sense of humor," said Robert Dhery, star, author and director of the hit Broadway revue, "La Plume de ma Tante."

"They love gags. It's funny, because they seem so straitlaced and serious."

"They can see a gag coming. They laugh quicker, louder—and shorter—than here. They give a sharp laugh, then quit, and you have to have another gag ready."

"The Americans laugh slower and longer."

Dhery also has found a difference between French and American audiences.

"I like it here because the audience comes to the theater ready to laugh and enjoy itself," he said. "In France they go to see whether you can make them laugh. There is a difference."

The Dherys have found Manhattan a cultural wonderland.

"I cannot understand your buffet parties," said Dhery. "They are so crowded there is no place to sit down."

"I went to one buffet party where there were 200 or 300 guests. I glanced into a bathroom, and there was a young lady enjoying her meal all by herself. It was the only place she could find to sit down."

Now! You can get the fast relief you need from nagging backache, headache and muscular aches and pains that often cause restless nights and miserable tired-out feelings. When these discomforts come on with over-exercising or stress and strain—you want relief—want it fast! Another disturbance may be mild bladder irritation following wrong food and drink—often settling up a restless uncomfortable feeling.

Don't! Fill your tank in 3 separate ways: 1. by speedy pain-relieving action to ease torment of nagging backache, headache, muscular aches and pains. 2. by soothing effect on bladder irritation. 3. by mild diuretic action tending to increase output of the 15 miles of kidney tubes.

Mong Sets New Mark [Again] As Dragons Roll, 74½ to 52½

Dragons have a powerful record-smashing javelin thrower in Denny Mong.

For the second time in two weeks, Mong broke his own all-time WHS distance record in the javelin event Tuesday—two weeks from the day he initially shattered a former record set in 1950. The big toss yesterday went 181 feet, 1½ inches, five feet, two and a half inches further than the 175-11 mark he set last Friday.

Yesterday's track and field competition was against Oil City. Warren got back into the win column, taking the scholastic meet, 74½ to 52½. Dragons had nine first place wins, five of them coming from field competition. Oil City had 6 first places, four in track runs.

On April 21, Mong scratched a new distance in the record books when the javelin sailed 174-1 after leaving his hand. Last Friday against Meadville, Denny erased that mark and replaced it with a 175-11 record.

The javelin event was Warren dominated. Blue and White boys of Loyal Briggs' taking second and third position. Local tracksters captured mile relay, half mile going to Oil City.

Craig Johnson, hurdler, was a three-time winner, coping low and high hurdles and 440. Mike Cashman ran 880 to cross over the line first and won in high jump competition. Other Warren victories went to Betts, Wick, Swanson and Cashman, mile relay; Mervine, shot, and Fowler, discus.

Warren will host Corry for a Section II meet Friday.

Dyke's Changes Making Winner of Detroit Tigers

By ED WILKS

Associated Press Sports Writer
Is it Jimmy Dykes' hot hand that has Detroit on the rebound in the American League, or is this just another of the Tigers' turnabouts for a new manager?

The rotund, cigar-smoking Dykes was plucked off the Pittsburgh coaching staff in the National League by Detroit and replaced Bill Norman as manager Sunday. The last place Tigers had won but 2 of 17 games and were 10½ games away from first.

Dykes moved fast. He pulled Charlie Maxwell off the bench and put him into the outfield. He made a starting pitcher of Don Mossi. Result: The Tigers won as many in one day under Dykes as they had in almost a month under Norman, sweeping a doubleheader from New York.

Dykes' next move was to bench third baseman Eddie Yost in favor of Ted Lepcio, acquired just last Saturday from Boston. Result: Lepcio hit his first home run of the year, a grand-slam against his late mates that hoisted the Tigers to their third straight success under Dykes with an 8-3 victory over the Red Sox Tuesday night.

Despite the victory, the Tigers are last, still 9½ games behind first place Cleveland. The Indians kept rolling with a 9-1 breeze over Baltimore. Washington gained a virtual tie for second with Baltimore and Chicago by beating the White Sox 8-3. Kansas City slipped to fifth as the seventh-place Yankees ended their losing string at five with a 3-2, 10-inning victory over the Athletics.

Southpaw Don Ferrarese 3-1 matched his victory total of last year with a four-hitter for the Indians—blanking his ex-mate Orioles without a hit until Bob Nieman homered with one out in the seventh. The Tribe, now 14-5 compared to the 12-7 record they managed in the first 119 games while setting an A.L. record with 111 victories in 1954, scored five in the first off loser Jack Harshman 0-4.

Bill Skowron drove in two runs for the Yankees, bringing the winner home with a sacrifice fly. Rip Coleman lost it in relief, giving up a walk and Gil McDougall's single ahead of the fly ball. Tony Kubek's first 1959 home broke a 1-1 tie in the eighth against A's starter Ned Garver, but Kansas City chased Whitey Ford with a tying marker in the ninth on Hal Smith's single, two walks and Preston Ward's sacrifice fly. Bob Turley 3-3 won it in relief, fanning the side in the 10th.

The Senators beat Billy Pierce 3-2 for the first time in six decisions since May 3, 1956. Jim Lemon's seventh homer, a two-run shot, chased the little lefty in the third inning. Bob Allison leader with eight, also homer, and Hamm Killebrew, the A.L. ed for the Nats as southpaw Chuck Stobbs won his first.

Yanks Take on New Look As Old Losing Streak Takes a Back Seat

By ED WILKS

Associated Press Sports Writer
The seventh-place, world champion New York Yankees finally managed to shed that losing streak in the American League. But it wasn't any breeze.

They had to worry through 10 innings at Kansas City before laying their string of losses aside at five with a 3-2 decision over the Athletics.

And they had to call Bob Turley to bail out Whitey Ford when the A's tied it 2-2 in the ninth.

Ford loaded the bases. Turley then was tagged for a sacrifice fly by pinchhitter Preston Ward before getting the final out.

In the 10th, a walk forecourt and Bill Skowron's sacrifice fly scored the winner against losing reliever Rip Coleman. Then Turley 3-3 struck out the side after a lead-off double by Hec Lopez.

Ned Carver gave up a first-inning run on Skowron's single, then was tough until the seventh. Tony Kubek made it 2-1 in the eighth with his first hom-

Clubhead Strikes Sand

(Fifteenth of a series written for Times-Mirror and NEA Service).

By DOW FINSTERWALD

PGA Champion

Confidence is an extremely important factor in playing well consistently, and especially when trapped.

A basic principle of an explosion shot from the green is that the clubhead contacts the sand under the ball and not the ball itself. This is the only shot in golf where the ball is not first met by the clubhead.

At address the clubhead is held about an inch above the sand and an inch or so behind the ball.

This is directly above the point at which you will want the bottom of the club's blade to enter the sand.

The stance is open, the ball opposite the left heel.

The feet are firmly planted in the sand to avoid slipping or moving.

The club blade is open. Take the clubhead back slightly outside the line of intended flight in an upright arc as the wrists cock abruptly.

I employ a three-quarter swing quite similar to that of an 8-iron shot.

The difference is that I am in more of an open stance and aim behind the ball.

NEXT: The amount of sand to be taken is constant.

Dykes Likes His New Found Ball Club -- Detroit Tigers

By DAVE DILES

Associated Press Sports Writer
DETROIT (AP)—Jimmy Dykes doesn't know, nor does he care, what went on with the Detroit Tigers before he got to town.

Everything Dykes has seen so far, albeit only three baseball games, has his approval. His team beat the Boston Red Sox Thursday night 8-3 for its third straight victory.

It sounded odd—Dykes' reply when he was asked what he likes best about the team he inherited unexpectedly late last Saturday afternoon when Bill Norman was fired.

"I like the spirit, the attitude," said the 62-year-old manager. "The players are grinning, they act like they want to win and they didn't let up after beating the Yankees that doubleheader. That's important."

Negotiators

their new ability—not only for world markets but also for the U. S. market.”
The industry said the “only important effective solution is less disparity between the labor costs of steel production in the United States and abroad.”
The union’s response is that present inroads of foreign steel is only temporary and sharply rising productivity of the American industry will keep it favorably competitive.
The dozen negotiating sessions are expected to boil down to industrywide talks represented by four-man teams from the union and industry.
William G. Caples, vice president of Inland Steel, which has its main producing facilities in the Chicago area, proposed a one year freeze on present wages averaging $3 an hour.
The union’s economic statement, however, said industry claims of steelworkers’ earnings are exaggerated on the basis of government and independent studies of minimum living standards needs.
Moreover, the union contended practically all other group of workers in America are receiving wage boosts and steelworkers must get one too.

NEW YORK (AP)—The new president of the U. S. Steel Corp. is a big, graying engineer who believes there’s only one way to get ahead—hard work.
His associates agree that 58-year-old Walter F. Mumford is a hard worker, but they say he also has a friendly manner, a sense of reserve that comes from his New England upbringing, a skill in delegating authority and a knack for inspiring confidence in subordinates.
Mumford put his formula of hard work in practice early. He worked nights and vacations in wire mill to pay his way through college—first at the Worcester Polytechnic Institute, then at Massachusetts Institute of Technology.
“In a number of industries where hourly earnings approximate earnings in steel,” union economist Otis Brubacher told U. S. Steel, “wage increases have already been negotiated for 1959.”
Brubacher said the Steelworkers don’t intend to be left behind in a wage boost parade that is going on unhampered in the rest of the economy.
President Eisenhower is calling for a stop in that parade in steel. He blurted at a Washington news conference that the government may intervene in some fashion if the steel talks veer toward another wage-price spiral.
Wages in the basic steel industry now average $3.08 an hour. The average steel price is estimated at $150 a ton. The current three-year contract brought the workers a package gain of 62½ cents an hour. Steel prices went up $24.50 a ton during the contract term.
R. Conrad Cooper, chief U. S. Steel negotiator who will also head the bargaining team for the entire industry, told the union that industry profits actually are not so lush as the union contends. They are inadequate, he said, to finance needed industry expansion and reward stockholders for their investment.
The whole argument boiled down to the claim, one underlining every labor negotiation—what will workers sell their labor for in a stated period ahead? Economic arguments are collateral, though not conclusive.
Both sides in the crucial steel battle pledged to study the other’s argument and do everything possible to reach a new agreement ahead of the June 30 expiration of present contracts, thus avoiding a July 1 shutdown.

tal. Auxiliary membership has swelled beyond fondest dreams, extending now throughout Warren county. Under Mr. Beardsley’s guidance, the auxiliary initiated the notions cart, launched the popular Snack Bar operation; the Candy Strippers program to interest young people in helping with many hospital jobs; and introduced the splendid Doctor’s Memorial. Also during Mrs. Beardsley’s tenure, the Book Cart affairs were taken over from the Warren Public Library. Credit is also due for complete and formal organization of the Auxiliary to include a full Board of Directors and officers.
Members of the medical profession, the hospital staff and her colleagues are proud that Mrs. Beardsley has been selected for the Benjamin Rush Award. Her dynamic activities as president more than qualify her for the singular honor which she so richly deserves.
Dr. Julius Fino, president of the Warren County Medical Society, will make the presentation next week.

foreign ministers conference in Geneva to start next Monday.
Khrushchev said the problem of a European security system should not be linked with a peace treaty for Germany. This was an apparent rejection of a package plan for settling European problems that the West has already to present at Geneva.
He said that a German peace treaty was the top issue for the present.
He said the Soviet Union was agreeable to the withdrawal of all foreign troops from East and West Germany. And, if the NATO members withdrew their forces behind the boundaries of their own countries, then, said Khrushchev, the Soviet Union would withdraw its forces from Hungary and Poland.
Finally, the Soviet leader told the editors that the German question was a problem of war or peace.

Clues Still Sought in Mississippi Lynching

POPLARVILLE, Miss. (AP)—A mantle of secrecy hung over the Mack Charles Parker case today as officers continued to look for clues that might lead to the lynching mob that shot the 23-year-old Negro truck driver to death.
A six-man coroner’s jury ruled Tuesday that two bullet wounds killed Parker. He was awaiting trial on a charge of raping a pregnant white woman when a band of eight or 10 masked men kidnapped him from an unguarded jail here April 25.
No bullets were in the body when an FBI agent and a highway patrolman pulled it from the Pearl River near Bogalusa, La., Monday. But FBI Agent Joseph Myers told the jury there were two holes in the body, one in the side and the other near the breastbone.

Tuesday Fixed as Date for Fisher-Taylor Wedding

By JAMES BACON
HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Eddie Fisher says he and Elizabeth Taylor will marry in Las Vegas, Nev., next Tuesday with Michael Todd Jr. serving as best man.
Fisher said the two had planned to marry the 14th.
“I don’t finish here until the 12th,” the singer said in a phone call from the desert resort. “And of course we would never be married on the 13th. So we had planned to get married the 14th. But Michael called us that he has to be back in Spain by the 14th.”
Todd Jr. is the son of the actress’ late husband.
Mrs. Howard Taylor, who is married to Miss Taylor’s brother, will stand up for her sister-in-law. The brother and his wife live in La Jolla, Calif.
Fisher said there would be two ceremonies—a civil and a Jewish rite. The latter will be performed by Rabbi Max Nussbaum, who recently converted Miss Taylor to Judaism, the same faith as Fisher.

Grand Jury Considers Raping of Negro Co-Ed

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP)—The Leon County grand jury goes into special session today to consider indicting four white men charged with raping a Negro co-ed.
Meanwhile, a committee of the Florida Legislature killed a bill which would have abolished the death penalty for capital crimes including rape.
Students at Florida A. and M. University, the school attended by the 19-year-old victim, held a mass meeting Tuesday night and applauded announcement of the committee’s action. They have contributed $500 towards a fund for their classmate.
The rape case had been scheduled to go before a new grand jury convening June 1 but the December jury was called back because of the “great public interest,” State Atty. William D. Hopkins said.

Racing Referendum Bill Is Sidetracked

HARRISBURG (AP)—House Republicans today decided to oppose any amendments putting off a proposed horse racing referendum until next spring.
The position, adopted at a brief caucus, apparently spelled the end of the measure for this session. Gov. Lawrence said he was amended to keep the issue off the ballot at the November general election.
Republican votes would be needed to amend the legislation.
Rep. Albert W. Johnson, GOP floor leader, said the membership agreed at the caucus to oppose any attempts to change the referendum date.
Rep. H. J. Maxwell (D-Westmoreland), sponsor of the measure, had amendments prepared changing the date of the proposed referendum from next November as now written into the bill, until the 1960 primary. He postponed plans to introduce the amendments in light of the GOP position.

Measure Would Boost Fine for Speeding

HARRISBURG (AP)—The fine for speeding would be raised to $25 for the first offense and penalties for other violations of the Vehicle Code would be doubled under a bill before the Senate.
The speeding fine would be increased from the present $10 to $25 for the first offense. A second conviction for speeding would cost $50 and a third offense would be $100.

They were Frederick Collingwood, 21, of Titusville, a d Ronald Keyes, 19, of Titusville R. D. 2. Collingwood was killed instantly. Keyes died six hours after the crash of a skull fracture.
The crash occurred on the same curve where Dennis Latschaw, 16, and William Riddle, 17, also of Titusville, were killed April 24.

China Serves Notice She Controls Tibet

TOKYO (AP)—Red China served notice today she holds full sovereignty over Tibet and will tolerate no interference by “any foreign country or by the United Nations.”
Peiping radio accused India of trying to prevent China from exercising full sovereignty in the revolt-torn religious state.
Although not abusive in tone, it was a firm reply to Indian Prime Minister Nehru’s recent statement in Parliament that he thinks the Tibetan revolt can only be settled by giving the area autonomy.

German Rangers Eat Crow As Steady Diet

SCHONGAU, Germany (AP)—Ranger troops of West Germany’s new army are eating crow—as a matter of diet.
It’s part of a toughening process in training for survival, given in “courses for airborne individual fighters” in this Bavarian Alpine region.
A reporter for a Munich newspaper, Ernst Baeumler, visited the training camp in a forest near the Lech River. He reported the rangers live in tents made from parachutes. They are rigidly trained in noiseless commando techniques.
Cigarettes and alcohol are rationed for all trainees. The menu is chiefly crows, game and fish.

Boys’ Rocket Attempts Gaining Wide Attention

NEOGA, Ill. (AP)—An ambitious rocket experiment by three high school pupils has gained the attention of the country’s top missile scientist, Dr. Werner von Braun.
Rick Jakle, David Carruthers and Paul Braun plan to launch a 6-foot rocket-carrying a white mouse—sometime in June. They hope to recover the mouse and the nose cone.
The boys arranged to meet Von Braun when the famed rocket expert was lecturing at the University of Illinois April 16. He spent an hour counseling them. Since then he has exchanged letters with the boys.

Tightening of Blue Laws Favored in Bill

HARRISBURG (AP)—Increased penalties for Sunday retail sales of nonessentials has won Senate approval despite a lengthy debate which questioned the legality and purpose of the bill.
The Senate approved the bill 37-9 Tuesday after an hour-long debate led by Republican and Democratic senators who opposed the stronger penalties for the old Blue Laws. The measure went to the House for further action.
Sen. Thomas A. Ehrsgood (R-Lebanon) called the measure “backward legislation—prerevolution.”
“We have an obligation in the House and Senate to protect the rights of minorities, those whose Sabbath is not on Sunday,” Ehrsgood said. “Observance of Sunday should not be forced by legislation.”
The measure would increase the present $4 fine for Sunday sales to $100 for the first offense and $200 for each following violation. It would apply to such retail items as clothing, furniture, accessories, jewelry and toys.
Gov. Lawrence already has come out in favor of such legislation. “This bill would not be moved here today if it were not for the lobbyists who feel they have been kept waiting,” said Sen. Charles R. Weiner, Democratic floor leader.

Democrat Wins Out In Baltimore Election

BALTIMORE (AP)—Democrat J. Harold Grady offered a modest explanation today for his rocky election from political obscurity to mayor of Baltimore in a few short months.
“You can’t attribute this to any political organization,” he said after Tuesday night’s thumping victory over Republican Theodore R. McKeldin, former mayor and governor of Maryland.
“It just showed the people are turning away the old faces,” Grady suggested.
McKeldin is the second old face turned away by Baltimoreans in favor of Grady this year. The 42-year-old lawyer and former FBI agent, elected to a four-year term as state’s attorney only last November, defeated three-time Mayor D’Alessandro in the March 3 Democratic primary.

Texas Judge Says “Just Can’t Stop Barking Dog”

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—A judge ruled here that dog owners cannot be required by law to keep their dogs from barking.
“As a matter of fact, you can’t keep a dog from barking unless you kill it,” he added.
County Judge William A. Miller tossed out a $50 fine against L.F. Schelever Jr., owner of the Idlewood Kennels.
The judge, without calling witnesses, ruled also that Schelever did not force the dogs to bark. The kennel owner was fined March 17 in Corporation Court for keeping barking dogs that made unnecessary noises. He appealed to County Court. The complaint was filed by neighbors.

The child was found abandoned in a Dallas drug store.
A short time later the FBI arrested a girl in another part of Dallas. The FBI said the girl admitted kidnaping the baby.
The finding of the child climaxed a widespread search for a baby sister, Betty Smithley, who disappeared with the child.
Police said the baby was in good condition.

Finds New Method For Mothproofing Wool Carpetings

CARLISLE—For more than a year technicians in the Masland laboratory have conducted an intensive research and development program in cooperation with the Shell Chemical Corporation in evolving a chemical formula containing Hexachlorocyclopentadiene and hexadimethanonaphthalene to be used in permanently mothproofing wool carpets and rugs.
On January 30, 1958, the United States Department of Agriculture gave permission for the use of this chemical as a mothproofing agent for wool carpets.
Masland is believed to be the first mill to use this new treatment.
Called “Hex-a-Moth” by the Masland mill, the treatment will protect wool yarn for the life of the carpet from damage by larvae (the wool eating organism) of moths or carpet beetles. The protection remains effective even after many washings by professional rug cleaners. Tests conducted in the Masland mill and also by Shell substantiate that the treatment will remain effective through many more cleanings than would be expected during the normal life of any carpeting. The use of “Hex-a-Moth” does not change the face of the finished carpet, nor does the physical properties such as handle, appearance or coloring change in any way.
Wool carpeting produced in the Masland mill since the middle of January has been treated with this revolutionary new process and Masland plans to use the treatment on all future production.
This protection is being provided at no additional cost to the customer.
With the use of “Hex-a-Moth”—wool joins nylon, rayon, Acrilan and Dynel in its resistance to damage by moths and carpet beetles.

RADIO and TV

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
NEW YORK (AP)—This is Emmy night, when a lot of TV stars will appear briefly before the cameras to present or receive the golden statues which indicate that he or she or this show was the best of its kind during the year. For 90 minutes — 10:11:30 p.m. EST—millions of people will be mildly or violently interested in who gets what, how Bob Hope looks, what Dinah Shore and the other women are wearing. The professional critics will review the proceedings as earnestly as if it were a Playhouse 90, and there will undoubtedly be some carping in print. Emmy has become a controversial piece of metal.

The awards are given to those elected as best of category by the 4,000 members of the Academy of Television Arts and Sciences. There are 42 categories now — none at all for daytime TV or sports—and there were some 200 nominations.

Mirrored in Our Times

Monday afternoon, while riding the elevator at Levinson Brothers department store, a gentleman was observing four small children—one fearful of the ascent; the others enjoying the ride. A smile of satisfaction appeared on his countenance and he said "who said that youth was wasted on the young?"

We just finished looking over the local selection of Mother's Day cards (and there's just about every type of card and sentiment). Some are aimed at mothers-to-be; some at the new mother; some at the modern mother and others to just the typical mother. A few have been created for mothers-in-law and even grandmother is honored by her grandchildren on Mother's Day. Some are sweet and sentimental; others are written with high good humor. But no matter what—Mother's Day is this Sunday and you'll undoubtedly be seeking a gift to go with whatever card you finally select. An even in this day of specialized diets, most Moms enjoy delicious quality candy. When you find it all done up in beautiful Mother's Day packages, you're all set!

The Warren Drug Store features famous Fanny Farmer boxed assortments for Mother's Day this year. She'll enjoy every tasty bite found in an exquisite box—all blue and gold and "motherly". Ever fresh, Fanny Farmer candies for this Sunday's special observance appear in two pound boxes priced at just $3.00. The Warren Drug Store also features a fine selection of greeting cards.

When the Beaty Jr. Hi-Y traveled by bus to Pittsburgh last Sunday, an ardent group of baseball fans were on board to enjoy a double header. Some 37 boys with their advisors took off from the YMCA at 8:00 a. m. and by 9:10 were starting to polish off their box lunches. Although it looked as though the scheduled games might be called because of rain, all went well. Fisticuffs between the opposing teams added considerable excitement to the day. We commend the young men heading this newly formed group, but the fellow who drove that bus certainly deserves a rousing salute!

The stage is set—the cast is ready and there are seats available for the Warren Player's 98th public production tomorrow evening and Friday at 8:30 at the Woman's Club auditorium. Reservations may be made by calling 776 from 7 until 9 this evening or from 7 p. m. till curtain time the nights of the show. Those seeking the pure pleasure of delighted laughter should plan to see "The Desk Set."

Walking up Liberty street—just window shopping, we noted several superb items that men will appreciate. Colorful elasticized belts with handsome monogram; sports socks banded with color—the one size variety that stretch to fit all sizes; a stunning pocket watch, modestly priced—or a wrist watch; good looking cuff links and tie clips; gay sports shirts and shorts; shirts in grand array and ties to take your breath away. Plaids, prints, solid colors—light weight apparel items so right for right now! And as they say — the most exciting thing a woman can have—is a well-dressed man.

It's the well-dressed man that shops at The Style Shop and you'll not go wrong if you stop there right away. No matter what your wardrobe needs, The Style Shop is bound to please. Hats, suits, slacks, jackets, socks, ties, shirts, accessories and novelties. You can't think it's going to snow again for a while—so let's dress for spring and summer!

We may be a day or two off in our calculations—but—HEY MOM—only 23 more days until school's out! — and your vacation begins!
